● ● O U R   S T O R Y

Erik Lindstrom is a Los Angeles based rug company that prides itself on bespoke, handmade custom rugs for luxury residential and hospitality interiors. Launched in 2011, the brand carries a road-less-traveled approach, creating patterns that defy trends but support a variety of styles. Erik's background in interior design has allowed him to approach his creations with a deep understanding of how they will work in a room and relate to a range of vignettes.

Lindstrom offers a curated selection of contemporary, transitional, and textural patterns which evoke both subtle and statement personalities to complement any interior. His area rugs are derived primarily from the natural world, using flora, fauna, landscape, and man-made objects as inspiration. Each piece is hand-made by artisan weavers with a heavy, lustrous pile and uniquely rich colors that are produced to be enjoyed and remain vibrant throughout a lifetime.

Produced for a variety of applications, all of Erik Lindstrom's designer area rugs can be customized into virtually any pattern, shape, color, or size. Alternatively, a large assortment of in-stock rugs are also available in multiple sizes and are ready-to-ship in 5-7 business days. All of these luxury rugs are manufactured from the finest natural materials, including Tibetan and New Zealand wool, fine silk, bamboo, nettle, cactus, hemp, and linen. Beyond the designs created by the in-house studio led by Erik Lindstrom, he also collaborates with a curated selection of world-renowned artists and designers to create signature, exclusive rug collections to choose from.

A full-page photograph of a sophisticated interior space. The walls are a vibrant yellow, accented with white decorative molding. A large, ornate crystal chandelier hangs from the ceiling. Below it, a large mirror reflects the room. A marble fireplace with a dark interior is the central focus. In front of the fireplace are two dark wooden side tables, each holding a small, detailed sculpture of a frog. To the left and right of the fireplace are white leather armchairs. The floor is covered by a large rug with a bold, abstract floral pattern in yellow and white on a dark background. Two framed abstract artworks are visible on the walls.

BOTANICAL COLLECTION

A photograph of a modern interior featuring two plush, tufted armchairs in a deep red velvet fabric. They are positioned on either side of a low, hexagonal wooden side table. On the table sits a glass lamp with a brass-colored base. The floor is covered with a light-colored rug featuring a repeating pattern of stylized, symmetrical organic forms. The background is a dark, solid wall. At the top center, there are two small white circles.

EPIDERMIS COLLECTION

ANIMALS, INSECTS, REPTILES AND THE HUMAN BODY. THESE ARE THE LIVING CREATURES WHICH WE ENCOUNTER IN EVERYDAY LIFE. WHAT WE OFTEN OVERLOOK ARE THE SOPHISTICATED FORMS AND TEXTURES WHICH ARE MORE COMPLEX THAN THE BEING ITSELF. EPIDERMIS IS A CELEBRATION OF ANATOMY IN ALL ITS SYMMETRY AND BEAUTY.

THE EARTH BENEATH IS CONSTANTLY CHANGING. WHEN LIFTED FROM THE GROUND, THERE ARE PRECIOUS STONES WHICH OVER THOUSANDS OF YEARS OFFER UP BEAUTY AND INTRICACIES OF PATTERN, COLOR AND MOVEMENT THAT ARE BOTH REMARKABLE AND AWE-INSPIRING. IT IS THE DETAILS IN THESE STONES THAT OFFER A GLIMPSE INTO THE BEAUTY AND EVOLUTION OF THE GROUND WE WALK ON.
